

ASTURIAS . . . as it is

Private personal visits

Llanes

Asturias is located north of the Iberian peninsula in a unique geographic location that results in spectacular landscapes defined by the contrast provided to the north by the Atlantic Ocean and just a few kilometers inland, a mountain stretch that forms the “Cordillera Cantábrica” separating Asturias from the rest of Spain to the south.

Sta. Maria del Naranco

Asturias is an ancient land where you will see a mixture between its Celtic origins and the different influences of the peoples that have inhabited in it for thousands of years. You can find beautiful and awe inspiring sights, one of the best cuisines in Spain, ancient monuments, towns and villages scattered throughout its territory and important cities like Oviedo, Gijon and Aviles.

Oviedo, Cathedral

We are looking forward to showing you Asturias as it is and by preparing tailored visit according suited to your needs and interests. It can be a gastronomical tour including world class restaurants or we can take you to the local café or bar it can be a cultural trip to learn all about the 9th century monuments, roman remains and churches as well as the local traditions and customs. Depending on your interests it can be a sightseeing experience traveling by foot or bicycle on Asturias trail infrastructure or by car on its modern highways. Asturias has many alternatives to accommodate every need that may include rural homes, small luxury hotels out in the country or first class city hotels.

La Franca, Beach

Cudillero

San Miguel de Lillo

Please let us know what you imagine your trip to be like and we will be glad to make suggestions in order to design the perfect trip for you. With our local knowledge we are able to take you to the real Asturias so you can return back home with a true firsthand experience. We will help in any way possible as facilitators along helping as language as well as cultural translators.
