Dip, I have opened the list for the 2011 Super Bowl Cruise. Can you pass along an e-mail to your membership? Chief

The sign-up list for the 2011 super bowl cruise is now officially open. Reserve your space today – no payment until August! Make sure to let me know what cabin-type you want. Full details on the cruise are at <http://nautical-options.com/2011-super-bowl-cruise>. I will be adding more goodies as Holland America delivers them. As of this writing, they are offering a $70 drink card per person plus all the other stuff already in hand.

The last Super Bowl we watched at sea was projected on a 40-foot screen! They had a Super Bowl Party complete with hamburgers, hot dogs, chili and five beers for the price on four. It's a great way to watch the Super Bowl!
