Special presentation on Adventure Networking

Reach your personal best through the adventure of a lifetime.

Adventure Networking is about making connections through your passions and interests in life. It is about building lasting friendships through networking events that are centered around what you like to do. From boating to bird watching, from biking to hiking, from wine tasting to travel, the National Association of Business Owners & Entrepreneurs (NABOE) Adventure Networking(TM) program is a way to connect like no other.

Adventure Networking provides you the opportunity to combine a truly unique, one-of-a-kind experience with exclusive business networking. This is high-level networking, deal making & powerful connections that only occur outside the 'normal' business hours and settings. Plus, did we mention, that you can have an incredible amount of fun as a business expense!

Join us in celebrating our first anniversary

To help us celebrate, Chantel's Bakery will be serving one of their delicious cakes!

Plus, an incredible raffle!

We will be raffling off 3 beautiful woven silk ties (of the winner's choice) provided by Sofio's Custom Clothiers and Tailors.

Sofio's Custom Clothiers and Tailors was founded over thirty five years ago by distinguished clothing designer and image consultant Sofio Barone. Today, Sofio and his son Michael operate a two-thousand square foot, all inclusive tailoring studio in McLean, Virginia. At the studio Clients enjoy private consultations, can purchase exclusively made custom-tailored clothing, and alter anything from t-shirts to wedding gowns. Sofio's is rated a five star business on Google, Yelp!, and insiderpages.

About Fridays at Four

We take great pains to provide you with a "Relaxed Networking (TM)" environment to interact with your peer group without being sidetracked by sales or multi-level marketing company reps. Not every contact at a Fridays at Four results in a sale, but every contact does provide an opportunity to share information, questions, and ideas with other like-minded individuals.

"NETWORKING is the single most powerful marketing tactic to accelerate and sustain success for any individual or organization!" Strategic Business Network, LLC

While it appears the economy is bottoming out, so many independent businesses are just barely holding on. There are steps you can take now to better prepare yourself for potentially difficult financial times ahead or until the economy rebounds. There is no silver bullet that can insulate us from any financial crisis, of course. But there are some basic things you can do to keep you business moving forward. One of the most important first steps is to continue making connections and building mutually beneficial relationships.

Why we Require Pre-Registration

Our Fridays at Four events are run by business owners, not a paid administrative staff. Requiring pre-registration allows us more time to spend with the audience, not handling walk-ins or last minute arrivals. Also, our Fridays at Fours typically sell out and we often just don't have the room to provide for walk-ins - good news for all of us!

Ruth's Chris Steakhouse - the Grand Host

Our Fridays at Four hosted is hosted by one of the most respected restaurant companies in the world. Ruth's Chris Steakhouse provide the utmost in service to our Fridays at Four gang each and every month. If you haven't experienced the Ruth's Chris difference, please plan to join us at an upcoming event.

Our Fridays at Four Papparazzi!

Did you miss the last event? Check out the photos from the last event on Maggie J. Szymanek of Uncommon Photography's website. Maggie is our very own Papparazzi and is an outstanding photographer. Visit her site at: www.uncommonphotography.com
