

Sharman Monroe Spotlight Firm - 8/25/10

DESCRIPTION OF COMPANY

ACN was founded in 1993 and has grown into a multi-million dollar global telecommunications company. ACN currently operates in 21 countries on three continents and is growing. It entered the Asian market in May of this year. In 2009, its revenues exceeded $700 million. ACN provides two different opportunities:

- 1) it provides a mechanism to generate income on a part-time basis on bills that people will pay for the rest of their lives;
- 2) it provides individuals and businesses with savings on bills they people will pay for the rest of their lives

ACN is the world's largest direct seller of telecommunication services and public utilities. ACN's flagship service is digital telephone phone with videophone. Videophone allows you to see the person you are talking to anywhere in the world! ACN also provides traditional local/long distance telephone service and DSL internet service, and the state of the art CLEAR 4G internet service. ACN also provides cellular phone services through AT&T, Sprint, Nextel, Verizon and T-Mobile, satellite TV services through with DirecTV and Dish Network, and home security services through ADT, and within the 4-6 months, gas and electric services.

ACN is endorsed by Donald Trump and was featured on "The Celebrity Apprentice". It is the cover story of the August issue of SUCCESS FROM HOME magazine. You can information on ACN on Twitter @acnnews and @DCBizOwner and on Facebook.
