The Federal Contractor Network

Dear Members,

TFCN Job Board continues its stunning growth with close to 1,000 active jobs, posted by over 350 registered companies. Job seekers are getting more active as well. Over 400 members posted their resumes while submitting over 500 job applications.

In other news, out platform provider Ning, recently announced significant changes to its business model. Namely, Ning will no longer provide free network hosting and will instead focus on its premium customers. What does this mean to you? Well, TFCN has always been one of Ning's premium customers and the new policy won't have any negative impact on our community. On contrary, this shift will bring new and exciting opportunities to TFCN members. Coming this July you'll be able to log in using your Facebook or Twitter accounts. Ning will open its API allowing tighter integration of external applications such as Job Board, Business Directory, Teaming Classifieds and Bidspeed. Other improvements will include enhanced groups and forums, new leader-board and much, much more.
